INTRODUCTION...

The Archives is the official repository for records created by and about the Diocese of Olympia. Its mission is to identify, collect and preserve records of enduring value to the Diocese and to serve its informational and records management needs.

The Archives supports the ministry and community life of diocesan congregations, ministries and institutions by providing reference and research services and by offering information on a wide range of archival and records management topics.

COLLECTIONS...

Materials in the Archives date from 1851 and document the early years of the missionary territories and districts, the establishment of the Diocese of Olympia in 1910 and the Diocese as it is today. Collections in the Archives include:

- Papers of the Bishops
- Journals of Convention
- Diocesan Newspapers
- Parish & Mission Records
- Records of diocesan offices, organizations, commissions, committees, camps & conference centers, ministries & institutions
- Photographs; slides, films & tapes
- CDs & DVDs
- Scrapbooks; memorabilia, artifacts & vestments

SERVICES...

The Archives welcomes requests for information from diocesan offices, congregations, researchers and the general public.

Assistance can be provided in the following areas:

- Reference & Research
- Establishing an Archives
- Document preservation
- Records Management
- Anniversary Celebrations
- Exhibits & Displays

Tours of Diocesan House are available by appointment.
